DataSet

The dataset is the top node in the Workbase. It is the database to store static data that you want to use during calculations.

When you are working in a project file, you will have a dataset related to the knowledge base (data fixed for all projects) and a dataset for the project (data fixed for the project).