

FunctionType

FunctionType$ is a string value/expression indicating the sub function type. The value will direct the evaluation of the function to the correct sub function. An error message is presented if a non-existing function type is provided.

See Function overview and QuaestorSyntax